SUMMARY

Highwood Lodge Farm Estate is an exceptional residential, amenity, and equestrian estate remarkably positioned just 9 miles north of Central London. This estate offers the unique combination of country living within a London postcode. It features a superb unlisted manor house interior designed as a country house, surrounded by formal gardens and accessed through a private tree-lined drive. In addition, the estate comprises 5 cottages and flats, an indoor swimming pool, a pool house, and a tennis court.

The impressive equestrian facilities include 14 loose boxes, accommodation for grooms, a horse-walker, six furlong gallops, a cross-country course, a polo field, and an Olympic-size outdoor arena suitable for dressage, show jumping, and polo. The estate encompasses 79 acres of pastureland and 7 acres of woodland, in total extending to 103 acres.

The estate is available as a whole or in two lots.

SITUATION

The farm estate is situated in the desirable and affluent neighbourhood of Mill Hill in North London. Nestled within a picturesque countryside setting, offering a sense of tranquillity and privacy while benefiting from the amenities and excellent transport links of London.

Mill Hill Village exudes a traditional village ambiance, complete with a village green and a local cricket club. The main shopping area, known as the Broadway, bustles with independent shops and restaurants. The property is conveniently located approximately 1.4 miles from Mill Hill Broadway Overground Station, which provides Thameslink services to St Pancras in under 30 minutes and to Luton International Airport in under 40 minutes. Additionally, it is approximately 2.2 miles from Mill Hill East Underground Station, granting access to central London (9 miles) via the Northern line within 45 minutes. The A1 and M1 highways provide routes to the north, while the A1 and A41 connect southward to central London.

Schools in the vicinity are highly regarded and offer excellent educational opportunities. They include Mill Hill School, Belmont, Grimsdell, the Mount, Eton College, Harrow, St Paul's School, and Westminster School.

HISTORY

Highwood Lodge Farm Estate began its transformation into a substantial estate in the mid-1600s. A survey conducted in 1754 documented a complex of buildings on the property. Over the centuries, the estate changed hands and was inhabited by notable individuals. These included Mary Ann Porter, a renowned actress (occupying from approximately 1730 to 1765), William Brodie Gurney, a shorthand writer and philanthropist (occupying from 1817 to 1825), Major General George MacDonogh (occupying from 1920 to 1933), who had an illustrious and decorated military career, and Sir Frederick Aked Sellers, a former Lord Justice of Appeal and Privy Councillor (occupying from 1937 until his death in 1979).

Maps from 1898 depict the property's layout similar to its current configuration, but around 1900, the house underwent a complete reconstruction in the Gothic style.

The present owners have resided on the estate since 1995 and have undertaken substantial improvements over the past 27 years. These include remodelling of the house to its present form, the design and landscaping of formal gardens, the remodelling of the indoor swimming pool, and the development of extensive equestrian facilities. Historically, these facilities served as a highly successful race training yard and have more recently been utilized for equestrian events and polo.

The owners have been consciously committed to enhancing the estate's natural capital. They have rebuilt the soil quality through regenerative farming practices, planted over 6,000 trees, and established one and a half miles of hedgerow, all aimed at supporting the estate's natural biodiversity and ecosystem.

LOT 1 ~ HIGHWOOD LODGE ~15.86 ACRES (6.40 HECTARES)

An avenue of Lime trees line an impressive driveway that sweeps up from the south, from Highwood Hill and passing through the estate parkland and formal gardens. The charming unlisted principal house sits in an elevated position within mature gardens, providing a beautiful setting. Constructed of brick rendered under slate roofs, Highwood Lodge is a substantial residence spanning 8,127 sq ft. It offers wonderful family accommodation across four floors, including a staff flat.

The main entrance stair hall leads into the impressive large Drawing room through double doors. This room serves as the central reception area of the house and features a double-height ceiling, a large marble fireplace, ornate plasterwork, and panelling. Abundant natural light fills the room through the double-height windows and the adjacent south-east facing conservatory at the rear, which provides direct access to the terrace and gardens beyond. Adjacent to the Drawing room are the formal Study and the formal double-aspect Dining room, which showcases linen lined walls, a large wood-burning stove under a marble mantle and offers views of the terrace and gardens.

The entrance hall also provides access to a rear reception room with a connection to the terrace and the kitchen. The Kitchen/Breakfast room offers ample space for everyday informal dining, cooking, and storage, with wall cabinets, fitted units, and integrated ovens and hobs.

On the lower ground floor there is a large secondary kitchen and reception room featuring a grand marble mantelpiece and French doors that lead directly out to the gardens. This area provides additional space for entertaining and receptions.

From the kitchen, stairs lead down to the service area on the lower ground floor, which includes a utility room, wine cellar, boot room, dog room with a dog shower, boiler room, stores, and a secondary office.

A secondary staircase from the entrance hall exclusively accesses the Principal bedroom suite on the first floor. This double-aspect bedroom boasts linen lined walls, an ornate fireplace, a spacious dressing room, and an en-suite bathroom with double basins, a bath, and a separate shower.

The main staircase from the hall leads to the first-floor accommodation, which comprises three bedrooms, two of which are en-suite and equipped with built-in wardrobes, along with a family bathroom.

On the second floor, there are two additional bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a large room within the loft space that is currently used for storage but could be re-purposed as a seventh bedroom. This room offers access to a south-east facing roof terrace, providing sweeping views of the gardens and parkland beyond.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

The landscaped gardens at Highwood Lodge provides a wonderful backdrop to the house. Stone steps descend from the front terrace and connect the house to the formal gardens below. These south east facing gardens feature a paved walkway through an avenue of olive trees, adjacent meticulously crafted box topiary with a central fountain. A raised pond feeds into a central stepped canal pond, flanked by intricately sculpted topiary and expansive lawns. The gardens benefit from an irrigation system, are flood lit and there is extensive CCTV together with sophisticated alarm system.

The garden gently slopes from the house towards two sizable ponds, teeming with diverse birdlife. The top pond feeds into the lower pond which features a raised walkway over it.

Within the gardens, there is a productive fruit and vegetable garden, designed as a cart-wheel, boasting apricot, peach, and pear trees, as well as multiple greenhouses, potting sheds and a tree house.

The boundaries of the house and gardens benefits from a natural screen of mature broadleaf and coniferous trees, hedges and thoughtfully planted borders.

The pool house is an attractive two-storey building, spanning 2,471 sq ft. One unique feature is that the swimming pool, with a built in electronic cover, is located on the upper floor, while the lower ground floor houses the ancillary accommodation. The lower ground floor comprises a spacious reception room, a kitchen, two changing rooms with showers, and the plant room. Additionally, solar panels are installed on the roof. The pool house leads out onto the recently refurbished outdoor tennis court which is well screened from the gardens and house by mature hedging.

FARMLAND

Either side of the driveway are paddocks of Grade 3 pasture land which is used for grazing horses, livestock and for hay production. The land is split into post and rail paddocks, each with water supply.

EQUESTRIAN FACILITIES

The main equestrian yard has been thoughtfully incorporated within the house grounds, situated in proximity to the house for convenience while strategically concealed by mature hedges and trees. Accessible from both the principal drive and the back drive, the yard features 14 loose boxes, tack rooms, feed rooms, and a 5-horse horse-walker. Additionally, there is dedicated groom's accommodation within the yard, comprising an open-plan kitchen and reception room, one bedroom, and one bathroom.

LOT 2 ~ HIGHWOOD LODGE FARM 87.01 ACRES (35.22 HECTARES)

The equestrian facilities within the estate are a remarkable and distinctive asset, representing the owners' passion during their tenure at Highwood Lodge. They have established and operated a highly successful racing yard, focusing on breeding, rearing, and training racehorses that have achieved multiple wins. The horses were exercised on a the six furlong gallop which rises gently to 200 feet through the farmland.

Towards the southeast of the estate lies a floodlit and boarded outdoor arena of Olympic size, boasting a sand surface suitable for dressage, show jumping, and polo. Adjacent to the arena, there is a viewing platform and hut for spectators.

As part of the extensive equestrian complex across the estate, a cross-country course was meticulously designed by Captain Mark Phillips. Notably, this course has attracted a crowd of 10,000 attendees for horse trials, highlighting its popularity and success.

The course is no longer used for competitions and the yard there is no longer run as a commercial racing yard but is enjoyed by the owners for their own equestrian pursuits.

'The equestrian facilities are a remarkable and distinctive asset, thoughtfully incorporated within the house grounds.'

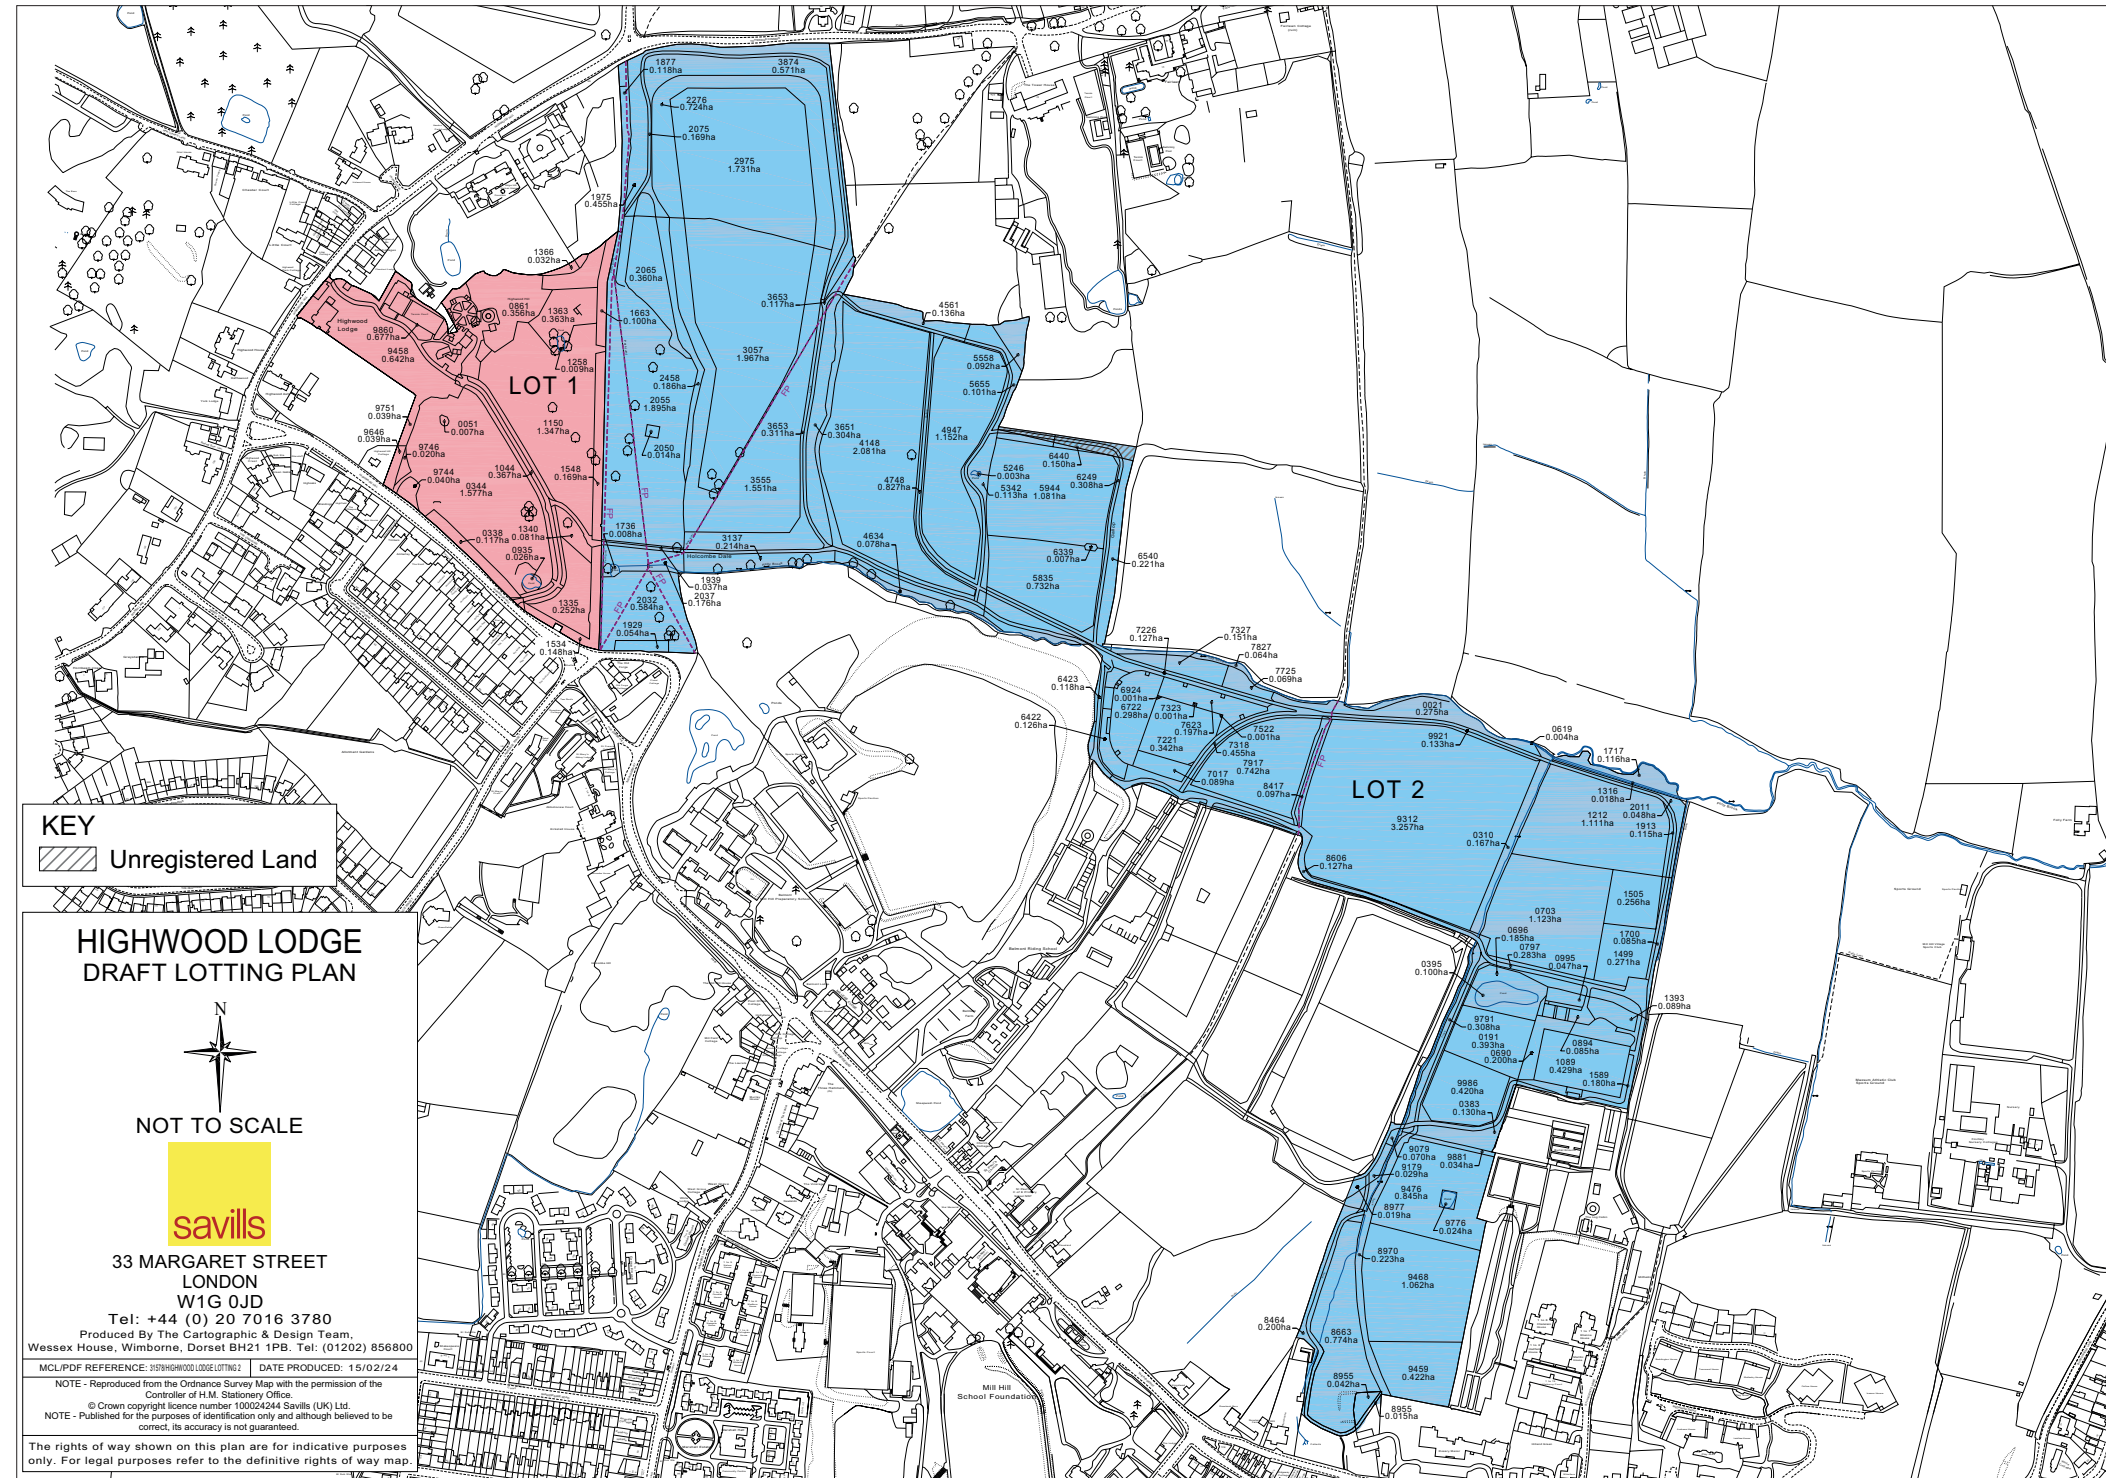

FARMLAND

The gently rolling farmland comprises 70.5 acres of Grade 3 pasture land which is used for grazing horses, livestock and for hay production. The land is split into post and rail paddocks, each with water supply.

The owners have been consciously committed to enhancing the estate's natural capital. They have rebuilt the soil quality through regenerative farming practices, planted over 6,000 trees, and established one and a half miles of hedgerow, all aimed at supporting the estate's natural biodiversity and ecosystem. There are 7 acres of woodland across the estate.
